

Grasping anthropology – lecture and discussion

AFRICAN WORLDS IN CHINA – CANCELLED

3 June 2020, 18:00 - 19:30 PM

Guangzhou in southern China is a global trade centre where traders from across the world go about their business. Cheap as well as fake products labelled “Made in China” find their way from there to Africa, among many other places. Students of the Institute of Social Anthropology Basel tell about their fieldwork practice in Guangzhou and how African communities live in the Chinese megacity.

> With students of the Institute of Social Anthropology, Lesley Braun, lecturer at the Institute, Franziska Jenni, curator for Africa, and Leah Vogler, Learning and Programmes

> In German

Admission fee

