

Grasping anthropology – Lecture

OLD BREAD AND DRY COOKIES – CANCELLED

3 March 2021, 18:00 - 19:30 PM

The Museum holds an extensive pastry collection: hundred-year-old tirggel (Xmas biscuits), buns, and Easter breads tell of seasonal rituals and regional specialities. How did the collection come about and what kind of stories do the old pastries hold? We've brought a few examples from the storeroom and now present them to you, but not without serving a few fresh pastries to go with them!

With curator Tabea Buri

Admission fee

