FIELD RESEARCH IN THE MINSTER

28 April 2019, 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM

For once, talk in the Basel Minster is not about theology or art history, but about anthropology. Following a 30-minute crash course on the stuff anthropology is made of in the Museum der Kulturen Basel, we explore the Basel Minster from a new angle: what does the church's main porch tell us about social belonging? In how far is a church service also a performance?

Start: Museum der Kulturen Basel, end: Basel Minster
