DOING FIELD RESEARCH IN THE MINSTER

13 September 2020, 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM

For once, talk in the Basel Minster is not about theology or art history, but about anthropology. Following a 30-minute crash course in the Museum der Kulturen Basel on what anthropology is all about, we explore the Basel Minster from a new perspective: what does the church's main porch tell us about social belonging? In how far is a church service also a performance?

Start: Museum der Kulturen Basel

End: Basel Minster
