

Grasping anthropology – discussion and video art

THE WORLD OF GERMAINE WINTERBERG

6 November 2019, 18:00 - 19:30 PM

Germaine Winterberg is a master storyteller – for instance, about her adventures in distant lands or about her experiences in non-conformist, every-day life in Basel. Her work has resulted in a video project called “L’univers de Germaine” by Muda Mathis, Sus Zwick, and Hipp Mathis. It shows the 83-year-old adventurer following in the footsteps of Swiss pioneers such as Annemarie Schwarzenbach or Ella Maillard. The evening really gets going when Winterberg and her fascinating stories encounter the video artists who are no less full of temperament.
