JAPANESE AND INDIAN EMBROIDERY

11 - 12 May 2019, 11:00 AM - 16:00 PM

In Japan, the running stitch is used for mending and embroidering textiles. The museum's textile storage holds countless examples showing how this sewing and embroidering technique is applied in Japan. They serve as inspiration for our own designs.

Please bring along any textiles in need of repair, leftover cloths, and a picnic for lunch!

There is only place for 16 textile aficionados, so please register by Fri 8.5. under 061 266 56 32 or at info@mkb.ch
